Career Mentoring Program @ CDHAW in cooperation with the Advisory Board of CDHAW

Dear students of CDHAW,

In cooperation with the Advisory Board of the CDHAW we established a Career Mentoring Program in 2014, and we will start a second round for the German students in fall 2015. Partners of this program are: BASF, DMG Mori, Freudenberg, FJK Kienbaum Consultants, MAN, Marquardt Switches, Schaeffler, Schenck, Schott and Shanghai Volkswagen.

The Career Mentoring Program is designed to help you - as German students of CDHAW - to explore occupational options. You will be connected with industry professionals to help you formulate career goals and options. Mentors share information about their occupation and give you practical career advice. Through the program you can develop your professional network, and learn about various job functions, industries and organizations.

For the second round of this unique program we again offer 10 excellent students the chance to have a mentor. To become a mentee, you have to apply for this program until October 8th, 2015. Please be assured that your personal profile will be treated in strict confidence during the selection process and disposed immediately thereafter.

The application should include: CV (English) and motivation letter (English).

The motivation letter should not be longer than 500 words and include following aspects:

- Reason for participating in the Career Mentoring Program
- Previous education
- Reasons for studying at CDHAW in China
- Possible influence on career development through staying in Shanghai
- First impression of China
- Hobbies and social engagement

Duration of the program: November 2015 – July 2016

Meetings: Will be scheduled individually between mentor and mentee.

Application process:

October 8th, 2015	Deadline for the application Please send your application in one pdf file to: Sabine Porsche, Vice-Director of CDHAW: porsche@tongji.edu.cn
October 15th, 2015	Preselection of the best applicants.
